

Vanagocara—a son of Jāmbavān.

Br. III. 7. 303.

Vanajāta—one of the ten sons of Hṛdika.

M. 44. 82.

Vanapātakas—a Janapada of the Ketumālā continent.

Vā. 44. 12.

Vanamālā—a R. of the Bhadrā country.

Vā. 43. 27.

Vanarājī—a servant maid of Vasudeva;¹ one of the thirteen wives of Vasudeva son of Kapila.²

¹ Br. III. 71. 163 and 185. ² Vā. 96. 161, 183.

Vanavāsikas—the people of a southern country.

Br. II. 16. 56; Vā. 45. 125.

Vanastamba—a sage of the Svārocīṣa epoch.

M. 9. 8.

Vanasthalī—a forest region, description of; trees with flowers like kimśuka, karnikāra, mañjau, and with birds like the cuckoo, crow, kapiñjala, kalaviṅga, parrot, swans, cakravāka, etc., and with animals like the cub of a lion, a pair of tigers, elephants, monkeys, cats, hares, snakes, boar, buffaloes, deer of different kinds, goats; all male and female enjoying sexual bliss.

M. 209. 3.

Vanaspati (I)—a son of Ghṛtaprsthā.

Bhā V. 20. 21.